TANGUY ACCELERATES THE ROCK REVIVAL WITH “GOIN’ FOR A RIDE”

With his new single “Goin’ For A Ride,” TANGUY delivers a rush of pure adrenaline — the kind of song that feels made for neon nights, loud engines, and packed rooms screaming every word back from the crowd. Driven by soaring guitars, explosive vocals, and an unapologetic rock ‘n’ roll pulse, “Goin’ For A Ride” captures the thrill of letting go and chasing the moment. It’s a soundtrack for freedom — a reminder to escape the pressure, embrace the ride, and reconnect with the fire inside.

Produced by Thomas Marolda (Richie Sambora, The Killers, Imagine Dragons), the single continues TANGUY’s mission to bring authentic rock back to the forefront. With roots in the classic arena power of AC/DC, Bon Jovi, and Def Leppard, and a modern edge built for today’s audience, TANGUY is carving out a lane that feels both timeless and urgent. Following previous releases like “Raise the Flag (of Rock ‘n’ Roll)” and “Fire It Up,” “Goin’ For A Ride” pushes the Rock Revival forward with even more attitude, motion, and heart — proving once again that real guitars, real emotion, and real songs still hit the hardest.

For fans of: AC/DC, Bon Jovi, KISS, Def Leppard, Airbourne, Mammoth WVH
